Your Conference Committee is hard at work preparing The Beautiful Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center as well as many exciting events that will make the 2020 Atlanta Conference a memorable and thrilling experience. Atlanta has so many things to offer it's no wonder it's considered THE Great International City. Couple that with events planned at the Conference and it will be a weekend you do not want to miss. With Monday being a holiday, it will be a fun, rewarding and fulfilling weekend. Atlanta has so much to offer....

The Labanettes

Over the years, one of the most anticipated and well attended events at our Conventions is an appearance by the Labanettes. This talented group stars B. J. Abraham, Charlene Hiffa, and Judy Nassar and will appear at the Atlanta Conference Friday, Feb 14 at 3:00 PM. Emceed by Mike Hiffa, they will reprise their famous "Remember When" stories which include, and are dependent on, a large amount of audience participation. The Labanettes and these reminiscences are just one more reason to visit the Atlanta Mid-Winter Conference over the Valentine's Holiday weekend!

Love, Exciting and New, Come Aboard, We're Expecting You

Don't miss your chance to come aboard The Love Boat in Atlanta. While at sail, watch your favorite Federation celebrities participate in the Newlywed (or Not-so-Newlywed) Game.

You'll also enjoy seeing your favorite crew on board The Love Boat: Captain Merrill Stubing, Doc Adam Bricker, the Ship's Purser Gopher, Bartender Isaac, and of course your Cruise Director Julie McCoy.

"Love Boat soon will be making another run. The Love Boat promises something for everyone. Set a course for adventure Your mind on a new romance It's Love..."
